PROFILE

I learned coding just to do something new but after digging deeper, I began liking it as it helps in solving real world problems. I love learning new technologies, also I want to be a part of great digital community and explore different technical development fields.

PROJECTS

NIX Music Player

<https://nikhilhore.github.io/NIXMusicPlayer/site/>

Designed beautiful UI to play music stored in the "music folder" using the HTML5 audio API. Project Specifications: Created UI for music player including spinning image and song detail popup Added play and pause functionality, Switch songs, Progress bar. Used technologies like html5, css and javascript.

Snake Game

<https://github.com/nikhilhore/SnakeGame>

Here I have created a classic snake game console application. Using c++ and some standard libraries created a basic snake game.
